Academic Integrity

Please visit: www.academicintegrity.utoronto.ca

Academic integrity is a fundamental value of learning and scholarship at the University of Toronto. Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in this academic community ensures that your university degree is valued and respected as a true signifier of your individual academic achievement.

The University of Toronto's Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters outlines the behaviours that constitute academic misconduct, the processes for addressing academic offences, and the penalties that may be imposed. Potential offences include, but are not limited to:

- Obtaining or providing unauthorized assistance on an online test/exam – this includes working in groups on a test/exam that is supposed to be individual work.
- Using or possessing any unauthorized aid, including a cell phone, or searching for answers online.
- Looking at someone else's answers, or working together to answer questions.
- Letting someone else look at your answers.
- Misrepresenting your identity or having someone else complete your test/exam.

All suspected cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and investigated following the procedures outlined in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters.

Minimum Grade C Requirement for Actuarial Science Courses

In order to enroll in any 300 or 400-level ACT course, the minimum grade of 63% must be obtained in each of ACT240, ACT245 and ACT247.

Canadian Institute of Actuaries (CIA)'s University Accreditation Program (UAP)

ACT245 is accredited under the Canadian Institute of Actuaries (CIA) University Accreditation Program: <https://www.cia-ica.ca/membership/university-accreditation-program-home>

Achievement of the minimum required grades in accredited courses may provide credit for preliminary exams. Please note that a combination of courses may be required to achieve exam credit. Details on the required courses and grades for the University of Toronto can be found in this link:
